

Proposed new Board member: Wilhelm Lamptey

Wilhelm Lamptey (male, b. 1989) is a senior business and partnerships leader with over 15 years of experience across cybersecurity, telecommunications, and global technology partnerships.

He has a strong track record in aligning commercial strategy, enterprise sales, and cross functional execution within large, regulated Tier 1 environments. Wilhelm currently serves as Director of Strategic Partnerships at F-Secure, where he leads strategic engagements with major North American partners and supports the company's consumer security initiatives.

Wilhelm holds a Bachelor's degree in Biology from New York University. He is a United States citizen as well as a Ghanaian citizen and he currently resides in New Jersey (U.S.)